Friends of Science 13th Annual Event

Featuring Ezra Levant, broadcaster and bestselling author

“Climate Leadership Catastrophe: Carbon Taxes, Job Loss, Freedoms Denied”

Please join us on May 10th for our Friends of Science annual event. We are pleased to announce a two-part event - Science and Policy.

For the Science - Dr. John D. Harper, FGSA, FGAC, PGeol., former director of the Geological Survey of Canada will give a brief overview of 600 million years of climate versus the out-of-context current 166 year climate catastrophe obsession.

For the Policy - we are very honoured to present our featured guest speaker Ezra Levant, broadcaster and bestselling author, who will address the catastrophic climate 'leadership' policies, their consequences and what you can do about it!.

Doors open at 5:45pm. Event opens with a buffet dinner (included with ticket) and cash bar during the mix 'n mingle from 6:00-7:00pm followed by opening messages. Dr. Harper's presentation starts at 7:15pm followed by our featured guest speaker Ezra Levant. There will be a short intermission followed by Q & A.
