Friends of Science 15th Annual Event

“Extreme Climate Uncertainty”

We are pleased to announce a two-part Policy and Science evening. Please join us on May 15th for our Friends of Science annual event. Deadline to order tickets is May 7th, 2018.

Policy: Award-winning Dutch filmmaker – Marijn Poels: "The Uncertainty Has Settled"

A young, left-wing filmmaker returns to Europe from working in the developing world, only to find farmers are growing wind farms, not potatoes, and no one wants to answer his questions on climate science or policy. He discusses his odyssey. His film is winner of Best Documentary: LA, Berlin, Paris

Science: Canadian climate scientist - Dr. Madhav Khandekar: "Climate Change & Extreme Weather"

An experienced climate scientist challenges claims of extreme weather and explores the West's obsession with ineffective and expensive climate mitigation plans, while billions of people suffer for want of basic sanitation, pumped water and reliable electricity.

Doors open at 5:45 pm. Event opens with a buffet dinner (included with ticket) and cash bar during the “mix 'n mingle” from 6:00-7:00 pm followed by opening messages and our speakers.
